

Call for Unity Trail Poems

Guidelines & Entry Form

Dakota County Library invites poets who live, work or attend school in Inver Grove Heights to submit original poems from April 1-25 for possible selection as sidewalk poems on the Unity Trail.

The Unity Trail is a paved path connecting different community spots to reach new and underrepresented residents of Inver Grove Heights. It honors the contributions of Indigenous, Black and communities of color at highlighted stops. Its emphasis is on the connection between racial equity, sustainability and environmental conservation. For more information about the Unity Trail, visit co.dakota.mn.us/parks, search Unity Trail.

Poems with the following themes will be considered:

- Unity between nature and community
- Celebration of diverse cultures and nationalities
- Resilience, joy and positive social change

Poems will be accepted from the following age groups:

- Children (ages 6-12)
- Teens (ages 13-17)
- Adults (ages 18 and older)
